Tuesday 16th May 2017

13.30 to 17.45

Psychological wellbeing of UK veterans after wars

Demobbed: The Reality of Veteran Mental Health in the UK

***Professor Edgar Jones shares new research findings*****

Barts & the London Psychiatry and King's College London

Wolfson Institute, Queen Mary University of London, Charterhouse Square, London EC1M 6BQ

We will have cutting-edge, presentations by international researchers, policy makers and commentators, including:

- Kate Davies OBE, NHS England,
- Professor Edgar Jones, Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology & Neuroscience
- Matthew Green, journalist and author of Aftershock, The Untold Story of Surviving Peace

This half-day event is supported by Forces in Mind Trust and Queen Mary University of London.

There is no charge for attendance but you are required to register as space will be limited. We look forward to meeting you and exploring the complex question of how veterans with psychological illness suffered during war or conflict manage the transition to a fulfilled life in civilian society. Please do forward this to any colleagues that would benefit from this event.
