Calling all 50+ Service Leavers

Are you transitioning to civilian work, or have you already transitioned, at or after the age of 50?

The Officers' Association and Centre for Research into the Older Workforce are conducting a research project into the employment barriers and challenges faced by 50+ Service Leavers in finding sustainable work in the civilian world.

This research covers all ranks and all Services. You can help by:

- Completing an online survey and/or:
- Participating in focus group discussions taking place in London, Shrivenham, Bristol, Plymouth and York in June 2019.

Please register to take part at:
